FOOD PANTRY

Connie Hellwig, a representative from St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Ellicottville gave a presentation on the Food Pantry Proposal previously submitted to the Town Board. She stated the church has been discussing the need for a food pantry in the Great Valley, as it remains underserved by the WNY Food Pantry. The food pantry would need use of the hall the last two Saturdays of the month, either 9-1 or 1-5. Volunteers from the church would stock the pantry, and distribute the food for the first six months, after which, they would be picked up by the WNY Food Pantry as a distribution site. Josh Bower is the food pantry church contact.

The Board thanked Mrs. Hellwig for the presentation, and tabled the discussion.

Deputy Supervisor Musall reported the Town has received a Sales Tax check in the amount of $136,043.77, and a Mortgage Tax check in the amount of $8,792.76.

KILLBUCK PAVILION

Bob Patterson, along with the KillBuck Committee, is organizing the second annual KillBuck Community Picnic on August 4, 2019. They were looking into if a 501c classification is needed, but it was determined that is not necessary, as they operate under the Town.

MOTION was made by Councilwoman Finch, seconded by Deputy Supervisor Musall to use $600 from the KB funds towards the cost of the Community Picnic. All in agreement.
